

ALEX FM - Latest Community Notices

Contact us on admin@radiogoolwa-alexfm.com.au to have your message read out

The Anglican Church in Goolwa is hosting a “Biggest Morning Tea” in support of the Cancer Council. It will be held this coming Friday 24th June, 10am -12 noon, in the Church Hall in Crocker Street. Entry is by donation. There will be a raffle with lots of good prizes and a guest speaker, the author and poet Michael Riddle. Get along and enjoy plenty of refreshments and good company, while helping a very worthy cause. All money raised will go to the Cancer Council.

The Pt. Elliot Computing Centre is closing, after 22 years of assisting the community. The last day of opening will be Wednesday 29th June. The Centre will be open Wednesdays and Saturdays 10.00am – 12 noon up till then. For more information, call Barbara 0407 606 671 or Kate 0458 609 922. After this date, the libraries at Victor, Port Elliott and Goolwa may be able to assist with computing issues.

The South Australian State Emergency Service (SASES) is a volunteer based organisation that responds to a wide range of emergencies and rescues across the State. They are currently looking for volunteers in both Operational and Non-Operational Roles. Operational roles are for those volunteers who like to get out and learn hands-on skills and respond to requests for assistance. Non-Operational duties include Admin, Training etc. For more information, please contact Southern Volunteering on 8552 7858 or email regional@svsa.org.au

Currency Creek CFS Brigade is recruiting for volunteers. You will be helping your community, it is rewarding and you can meet new friends and learn new skills. For more information, please contact Paul on 0428 849 657 or attend the brigade on a Monday training night from 7pm.

Alexandrina libraries are again running their “3 Authors” talks, featuring 3 local women who will explain their creative journey and do book signings. This is a free event but bookings are essential. To book please go to the Alexandrina website alexandrina.sa.gov.au/libraryevents or call 8555 7000

Goolwa Community Centre, at 25 Cadell Street Goolwa, has multiple courses and events this month, including basket weaving, nutrition support groups and computer training. Please contact the Centre on 8555 3941 or visit goolwacommunitycentre.org.au for all information and bookings.

The National Trust SA, Port Elliot Branch, will hold its next Annual General Meeting this Tuesday 21st June at 2:30 pm in the RSL Hall, Port Elliot. All are welcome.

The next Cittaslow Goolwa market is on this Sunday 26th June, 9am till 1pm in Jaralde Park, in the Goolwa Wharf Precinct. The market will be full of top quality local produce, fresh fruit and veg, delicious cakes and freshly baked bread, plus plenty of hot food and coffee and local artisans with their unique products. There will be live music and a wide selection of products from the Cittaslow Corner in Goolwa. For more information, contact Angela on 0438 321 674 or at cittaslowgoolwa.com.au

ALEX FM - Latest Community Notices

Contact us on admin@radiogoolwa-alexfm.com.au to have your message read out

The South Coast Community is hosting another fantastic Black Tie & Boardies Winter Ball, Saturday 16th July, 7pm at the Middleton Pioneer Hall. Music by the Flaming Sambucas, Pizza nibbles, Curry main course and Sticky Date Pudding for dessert. Tickets available at Trybooking.com, search for Black Tie and Boardies. All proceeds to the Fleurieu Community Foundation for Homelessness.

Southern Cross Care "Sandpiper Lodge" in Goolwa is seeking volunteers to assist with Leisure and Lifestyle Programs. Volunteers are needed in any of the following areas – companionship, supporting residents in wheel chairs to and from activities, leisure and lifestyle activities. Ideally you would be available Thursdays and Fridays, but other suitable days could be arranged. Any time you can give is valuable. For more information, please contact Southern Volunteering on 8552 7858 or email regional@svsa.org.au

The Station Masters Gallery, next to the Information Centre in Strathalbyn, is open 7 days a week from 10am till 4pm. The current exhibition is Fairy Planets, by 3D artist Karin Brown, and runs until Wednesday 27th July.

The Goolwa RSL is open for meals to the general public, as well as members, every Friday from 4.30pm. Good food at reasonable prices in a friendly atmosphere. Bookings are essential. Please contact Jane on 0407 098 978 to make your booking.

The Fleurieu Retire Active group are a friendly bunch who get together Monday mornings from 9.30am till 12noon at the Port Elliott Institute on The Strand, for games of Table Tennis and Cards. A great way to meet new friends and keep fit. For more information call Sue on 0413 591 003

Two new community mosaic projects are on at the Community Centre, 25 Cadell Street, Goolwa on Wednesdays, 1-4pm. Come along, it's free, it's fun and you will learn new skills as you help create fabulous visible art for your community. For more information, please call 8555 3941

The Goolwa Community Art & Craft Shop, on the Steam Ranger platform at Goolwa, has an extensive selection of quality handmade items for purchase. Opening hours are: Monday-Friday 11am-3pm; Saturday, Sundays, Public & School Holidays 10am-4pm.

Whale Season has begun and runs until October. If you see a whale and take photos please share them with the SA Whale Centre - they would love to share this experience with those unable to visit themselves. Stay up to date with whale sightings via the SA Whale Centre's Facebook page or by visiting the Whale Sighting Log online. You can also join the mailing list and be kept up to date with sightings.

ALEX FM - Latest Community Notices

Contact us on admin@radiogoolwa-alexfm.com.au to have your message read out